November Events

Patrolman First Class James Bachman completed Active Shooter Training (ALICE-Alert, lock down, inform, counter and evade) with Army Reserve, The Lewes Yacht Club, and Harbor Healthcare

All members of the Department completed our yearly night and low light firearms qualifications for the patrol rifle during the month.

Patrolman Crapps attended the Lewes Bicycle Shop Forum on Cycling in Lewes which was attended by approximately 30 people

The Lewes Police Department participated in the Beebe Healthcare Helicopter Crash Exercise along with their security team and the Lewes Fire Department.

Staff from EDIS Construction Company reviewed the Police Department for physical plant upgrades to the kitchen, office areas, bathroom and locker rooms.

On November 22nd, I addressed the residents at the Huling Cove Holiday luncheon on the Lewes Police Department priorities and areas where we can work together. All residents completed our policing survey. Afterward, I met with the complex manager, Carl Anderson.
